The Republicans who have been defeated are: Mason in the Third, Adams in the Fourth, Gest in the Eleventh, Rowell in the Fourteenth and Cannon in the Fifteenth, a gain of five for the Democrats. The greatest surprises on the Congressional vote appears to have been in these districts, where the Democratic candidates were appears to have been in these districts, where the Democratic candidates were indorsed by the Farmers Mutual Benefit Association—as the Republicans appear to have underestimated the vote of this organization. In two districts of the State, however, the Republican candidates themselves had the indorsement of the Farmers Mutual Benefit Association, but it was not sufficient to secure their election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 .- Later this evenchicago, Nov. 3.—Later this even-ing Congressman Fithian telegraphs the Associated Press asserting that the complete returns will show his resiect-tion by 500 plurality. A dispatch from Kankakee also indicates the probability that the complete returns may defeat Payson.

Payson.
CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The full vote of Illinois, official, unofficial and estimated, indicates the election of Amberg, Rep., for State Treasurer, by a plurality of about 10,000 over Wilson, Dem. Edwards, Rep., for Superintendent of Public Instruction, has a plurality of 8000 over Raab, Dem. FALSEHOOD AND FRAUD.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Congressman Joseph G. Cannon sends the following to the Associated Press, in reply to a query as to the election:

"Most of the members of the Farmers' Alliance voted with their respec-

ers' Alliance voted with their respec-tive parties, but enough farmer Re-publicans threw away their votes to weaken the party in this district.

"The school question told against the Republicans heavily. The Democratic candidates for the Legislature made all the pledges asked by certain churches, assuring the other Democrats that they did not mean suything by it. The pledges asked by certain churches, assuring the other Democrats that they did not mean anything by it. The pledges gave them a large vote especially from the Germans who voted the straight Democratic ticket. The McKinley act, on, discussion, was approved by the Republicans, but the campaign was so short that all could not be reached. The Democrats used muywump misroprecincts give Barham, Rep., 7584; Geary, Dem., 6559; Barham's majority, 1025. As compared with the vote two years ago this is a net gain of 1002 for Barham.

In the Swond Congress District complete returns from 126 out of 404 precincts give Blanchard, Rep., 10,620; Caminetti, Dem., 10,061; Blanchard's majority, 559. As compared with the vote of two years ago this is a net gain of 278 for Blanchard.

NOTHER STATES

Chicago, Nov. 5.—|By the Associated Press.] Never in the history of Illinois politics have the ticke ts of the respective parties been scrat ched to such an extent as in the present election. It is no exaggeration to say it is this alone to which is due the twenty-four hours' delay which has ensued between the closing of the polls and the time when reliable results are obtainable. Even now there is a possibility that the official returns may modify radically the apparent results on the State ticket. The elements which have entered into the present campaign and contributed to a great extent to the scratching are the Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association, the agitation of the compulsory school law and the state in the Compulsory school law and the same ratio continue Amberg will the same ratio continue Amberg will the effected by 14,000 and Edwards by 10,000. As the returns thus far are mostly from Chicago and Northwestern Illinois, the Republican stronghold, and both the Democratic State candidates are from Southern Illinois, the present Republican plurality will probably be radically decreased by respective parties been scrat ched to the same counties two years ago gave Harrison 14,000 and Edwards by 10,000. As the returns thus far are mostly from Chicago and Northwestern Illinois, the Republican stronghold, and both the Democratic State candidates are from Southern Illinois, the present Republican plurality will probably be radically decreased by 14,000 and Edwards by 10,000. As the returns thus far are mostly from Chicago and Northwestern Illinois, the Republican stronghold, and both the Democratic State candidates are from Southern Illinois, the Probable of the Chicago and Northwestern Illinois, the Republican stronghold, and both the Democratic State candidates are from Southern Illinois, the Probable of the closed and both the Democratic State candidates are from Southern Illinois, the Probable of the candidates are from Southern Illinois, the Republican stronghold and both the Democratic State candidates ar

Cook county.

The results also show that there has been an immense amount of trading on local and State tickets, not only in Cook county, but throughout the State, where local contests were heated. The indications tonight point to a much larger Lutheran or anti-school-law vote than was anticipated by either party. It is doubtless due to Raab's expressed opposition to the law in its present form, and to Amberg's acquiescence to its modification that these gentlemen, although of different political parties, sociation. majority.

San Francisco indicate the election of the localities where the membership of that organization is the greatest.

On the face of incomplete and estimated fetures tonight, the result of the State ticket in Himois is as follows:

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The following are to succeed Farwell.

Crafts, the Democratic leader in t Illinois General Assembly, conced the Legislature by four or five. A SLIGHT REPUBLICAN LOSS.

The estimated returns of 64 of the 102 counties in Illinois, including Cook, give Amberg, Rep., 12.682 plurality for State Treas urer, and Edwards, Rep., 8984 for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

dicate almost beyond a doubt that Fithian, Dem., has been defeated in the Sixteenth District by Reeder, F. M. B. A. This will make the delega-tion eleven Democrats, eight Republi-cans, one Farmers' Mutual Benefit Association.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—In the Third Congress District, Durborrow, Dem., is elected over Mason, Rep.
BLOOMINGTON (Ill.,) Nov. 5.—Congressman Rowell, Rep., is probably defeated.

MACOMB (Ill..) Nov. 5.—Cable is elected over Gest for Congress.

ASHLEY, (Ill..) Nov. 5.—Forman, Dem., is elected to Congress in the Eighthteenth District.

DANVILLE, (Ill..) Nov. 5.—George T. Buckingham, Rep., Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives, estimates that Congressmen Cannon is defeated by Busey in the Fifteenth by a small majority. Cannon concedes his defeat by from 200 to 500.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—Congressman

PENNSYLVANIA.

Pattison's Election Conceded by the Republicans. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—[By the Associated Press.] The election of Pattison, Dem., for Governor is conceded by the Republicans by over 5000. The Democrats certainly gained two congressmen. The figures are so cle in three other districts that the official computation may show a possible present delegation in Congress stands twenty-one Republicans and seven Democrats. The Legislature is strongly Republican, although on joint ballos the majority of 102 in the present Legislature will be somewhat reduced. Returns from the State are very meager.

Waters, Rep., for Lieutenant-Governor, and Stewart, Rep., for Secretary of Internal Affairs, is elected, not withstanding the defeat of the ticket.

THE ADMISSION OF CALIFORNIA What a Congressman Said About the State in 1850.

Our dispatches contain an account of some of the features of the impressive and jubilant celebration by which the great and prosperous State of California has been commemorating the for tieth anniversary of her admission to the Union. The occasion seems to have prompted the grandest display ever witnessed on the Pacific Coast, and it was fitting that it should, for the event commemorated was most note-worthy and fraught with great conse-quences. The California of today, with its large and thriving popu-lation, its busy cities, its varied industries, its vast agricultural and mineral development, and its in-stitutions of education, philanthropy and culture is a very different State from the California which, forty years ago, knocked for admission into the ago, knocked for admission into the sisterhood of States. But there were those who, even then, had the vision to see and the courage to predict its future greatness. One of these, the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop, still lives to see his predictions more than fulfilled. As a member of the National House of Representatives, he not only voted for the admission of California in September, 1850, but in May of that year he made a very eloquent and impressive made a very eloquent and impressive argument in support of the bill for admission. At that time every such question was involved in the greater question of slavery and its extension, and the Southern contingent in Con-gress viewed with dislike the movement for the admission of California with an anti-slavery clause in its constitution. Mr. Winthrop's argument was directed to the consideration of the question in this aspect, and in the course of it he

"What is California? But yesterday, "What is California? Butyesterday, sir, it was a colony in embryo. But yesterday, to use the language which Mr. Burke once applied to America, it was 'a little speck, scarce visible in the mass of national interest; a small seminal principle rather than a formed body.' To-day, it presents itself to us as an established commonwealth, and is knocking at our doors for admission to the Union as a free and independent State. Snall it be turned away? Shail it be remanded to its colonial conto the Union as a tree and independent State. Snall it be transed away? Shall it be remanded to its colonial condition? * * * Upon what pretence shall such a step be taken? * * * It is said that she has not population enough? The best accounts which we can obtain estimate her population at more than a hundred thousand souls, and these, be it remembered, are seen all full-grown persons, and a vast majority of them men and voters. * Is it said that her boundaries are too extensive? You did not find this fault with Texas. Texas, with the boundaries which are claimed by her, has 325,520 square miles; and with any boundaries which are likely to be assigned to her, she will have more than 200,000 square miles. Colifornia, under her own constitution, has but 155,550 square miles of territory, of which one-half are mere stitution, has but 155,550 square miles of territory, of which one-half are mere mountains of rock and ice and another quarter a desert waste. Do you complain of the length of her seacoast? You did not find this fault with Florida, whose sea coast and gulf coast together, if 1 am not greatly mistaken, are more than one-third longer than that of California.

* * * 1 deciare to you, sir, that, in my judgment, if any fault is to be found with the dimensions of Califorornia, it is to be found by the free States, who might reasonably look to have two States, instead of one added have two States, instead of one added to their number from so vast a terri-tory. * * * Is it said that these tory. * * * Is it said the settlers are a wild, reckless, population, bent only upon digging gold and unworthy to be trusted in establishing a government? Sir, I do not believe a better class of emigrants was ever found flocking in such numbers to any new settlement on the face of the earth. * * It is said, finally, Mr Chairman, as a ground for rejecting California, that she has prohibited slavery in her constitution? No. no. sir: nobody will constitution? No, no, sir; nobody will venture to urge that as an objection to her admission to the American Union. Even those who would willingly have had it otherwise must be glad in their own hearts, whether they confess it or not, that she has settled that question for herself; that sne has saved us from the difficulties and dangers which would have attended an attempt osettle it for her here. While tempt to settle it for her here. While some of us will go still further and, without intending any offence to others, will thank God openly that the infant Hercules of the West has infant Hercules of the West has strangied the serpent in the cradle; that this youthful giant of the Pacific presents himself to us, self-dedicated to freedom and stands a self-pledged and self-posted sentinel, side by side with Oregon, against the introduction of slavery, by sea or land, into any part of that transalpine territory."

These are earnest and fervent words, and they show through what a strug-and they show through what a strug-gle of conflicting interests and by what effort on the part of those who were contending for human freedom California obtained those privileges of Statehood, the acquisition of which she has just been commemorating.

It is stated in baseball circles here that Mr. Hellman will not control the baseball management this season in Los Angeles, as he is a heavy loser from last year's business. PROGRESSING FINELY.

What the Southern California Floral Society is Doing. The preliminary arrangements for the forthcoming floral exhibition of the Floral Society, which opens next Tuesday night at Hazard's Pavillon, are progressing finely. The ground space of the immense hall will be laid out and subdivided so as to repre-sent a veritable flower garden, and the large ornamental trees, shrubs and trees with which it is designed to cover the stage will give the pleasing effect of a dense forest in the distance. In the immediate fore-ground will be an immense arch with the words "Southern California Floral Society" worked in Immense letters composed of chrysanthemuns. Up and down the sides of the Pavilion will be displayed on tables cut flowers and firral designs, of which there will be a special feature for each day. To give some idea of the importance of this feature it will only be necessary to mention the fact that the society has provided 2000 bottles, all of uniform height, size and pattern, for the cut-flower designation. The cut-flower designation of the signs will run upward of 150 for each day, one firm alone already having under way seventy-five designs in various unique and fantastic patterns worked in immortellea. The display of choice collections of ferns, paims, tropical plants, etc., from private conservatories will be a striking feature, presenting growths never before seen by the general public.

Ali endeavors of the practical growers merit the attention of the public, and the florists, who have heretofore done much to make previous efforts of a similar character a success, feel confident that the coming floral display will be a little the finest of anything yet attempted in this section. Flower-lovers have a treat in store for them.

Your very title, my dear madame, "Chairman of the Executive Committe," is significant of the immense advance made by your sex in organizing and sustaining institutions for the welfare and improvement of the people.

Fifty years ago there was no need for the feminine of "chairman" or "committee man" in our language. The activity of the women in our days in the promotion of all good works renders the collage of such a word a necessity.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—[By the Associated Press.] Maj.-Gen. Howard, commanding the Division of the Atlantic, in his annual report, dwells on the necessity of continued activity in the matter of sea-coast defenses. He earnestly hopes that efforts will be continued to organize the three branches of the army into regiments of twelve troops, batteries or companies, officered by the number and grade of officers now authorized for the cavalry regiment. The present maximum of 25,000 enlisted men results in a severe restriction, and to keep the organization up this 25,000 maximum allowed should not be less than 35,000. Gen. Howard says that the effect of having organized the army in 1866 with officers of nearly the same age, who had already suffered much hard-ship in the rebellion, is now working serious injury to the service. The number of disabled officers far exceeds the limit of the retired list. Such the limit of the retired list. Such officers as are above 64 years of age should, by legislation, be transferred from the limited to the unlimited retired list. The Governor Still in Doubt-The Legislature Republican.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5 .- By the A sociated Press.] The news from Kan- Gov. Merriam Elected by a Reduced. sas indicates that the Farmers' Alliance secured a victory in the State. An official count will be necessary to decide whether Willets, its candidate for Governor, or Humphrey, Rep., has, Willett's favor, with most countles, where the farmers are in the majority, to hear from. The Farmer's Alliance seems reasonably sure of electing Simpson in the Seventh District. The Fifth District is also conceded to be very close between Davis, F. A., and Phillips, Rep. The Republicans elected Funston in the Second. The Third and Fourth are in doubt between the Farmers' Alliance and Republicans. The returns strongly indicate the election of Ives, F. A., for State Attorney. The Democratic and Resubmission vote was very heavy, but not so large as anticipated. Robinson, Dem., for Governor was scratched for Willets, and the Farmers' Alliance voted for the Democratic mers' Alliance voted for the Demo-crats on county offices. The Farmers' Alliance will have a strong delegation in the State Legislatore. The Repub-licans claim only twenty-four on joint ballot. Ingalls's redicction is not be-lieved to be jeopardized. Chairman Chase, of the Farmers' Alliance State Central Committee, claims the election of Willets for Governor by 25,000. A PHENOMENAL MOVEMENT. KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5 .- The Repub lican candidate for Governor is beaten. Six out of seven Republican congressmen are defeated. Senator Ingalls' reflection is the subject of grave doubt. That is the situation in Kansas. There was a landslide, a regular avalanche in Kansas. Two thousand Republican majority was overwhelmed by a resistless force. The Farmers' Alliance did it, and it was a genuine surprise. Every political leader predicted great strength for the Alliance, but only the most sanguine of rural seers regarded its success as even a probability. The chances for the Democrats seemed much brighter. The Alliance strength is depleting to an enervating degree the vigor of the Republican party. For the first time in many years the Republican Congress delegation is broken and broken to fragments. Only one Republican escaped the wreek, and that was Funston, from the Second District. The Democrats were successful in the First, electing Moonlight over Broderick, Rep., by 10,000 majority. Morrill, Rep., present incumbent, declined a renomination in this district. INGALLS'S POSSIBLE DEFEAT.

Apoches surprise lies in the possible

Another surprise lies in the possible defeat for reëlection of Senator Ingalls, whose term expires in 1891. The Farmers' Alliance and Democrats waged a bitter campaign against him, and a majority of the districts con-tained one of their candidates against the Republican candidates. The rethe Republican candidates. The result is the certain election of ninety-five Farmers' Alliance and Democratic legislators against thirty Republicans. Some of the former may vote for Ingalls, but the opposition claim that those newly-elected who oppose him, together with the opposition hold-over, will give surely 90 votes, or a majority of 6 against him. This now looks to be a correct statement of Inooks to be a correct statement of Ingalls's situation, but it is liable to mod

MARKHAM'S GREAT VICTORY.

The importance and significance of Markham's victory becomes more evident the more it is reflected upon. The issue was a clean-cut one, between the people on the one side and the bosses on the other. For the first time in many years a California Republican convention had dared to act entirely as its members deemed best, without regard to the wishes of rings and cliques. The result was the enthusiastic nomination of H. H. Markham, a man comparatively unknown to the inhabitants of a major portion of the State. The convention took him upon the word of his Southern neighbors, that he was a fit man to sit in the gubernatorial chair and carry out the will of the people for a clean, dignified and economical government.

Then began the campaign, and as oon as it was found that Markham was really making headway, every device known to the skilled and unscrupulous politician was called into service for the purpose of defeating him. He was declared to be a friend of Chinese labor and an insulter to the Irish. It was said that he was bitterly opposed to all organized labor. The changes were rung ad nauseam upon the Hallock letter question. Secretary Waterman and Gov. Boruck got down and scooped up filth to throw at a man whose shoes they were not worthy to clean. The self-styled 'Monarch of the Dailies," the San Francisco Examiner, followed by every Lilliput journal in the State could be bought or influenced, barked and yelped their variations of these lies at his heels.

It was, however, all in vain. Marknam has gone through the ordeal, he has appealed to the people, and they have given their reply in thunder tones, "from Siskiyou to San Diego and from the Sierras to the sea," and in no place less decidedly than in Pond's own stronghold, which even Republicans conceded to him by several thousand votes. The people have declared that they appreciate the action of the Sacramento convention: that they are determined to make an end to boss rule in California, and that, henceforth, they will elect to office men on their merits.sourning the insolent dictates of arrogant bosses, rings, cliques and corporations, who have for so many years held the State in thrall and disgraced our name among the commonwealths of the Tuesday was indeed a proud day, both for the people of California and for Col. Markham, her chosen son, who has received so flattering an indorsement in face of such presistent and powerful opposition.

BALLOTS.

There was probably never an election held in the United States at which there was more scratching of ballots than in the one just decided. Especially was this the case in Los Angeles county. In some of the precincts there were more scratched ballots voted than straight ones.

In purely local contests we regard this as a not unhealthy sign. It shows that the voters are beginning to do a large amount of thinking for themselves. They show an indisposition to be driven like sheep to the polls under the party lash.

It is in politics much as in religion. Absolute unanimity is by no means a sure evidence of healthy life. The Roman church prides itself on the fact that it is and always has been free from the multifarious sects which characterize the Protestant faith. Yet, no intelligent person will claim that the former church is in a more healthy condition than the latter. Movement-thought-action are requisites of healthy existence. The running brook purifies itself as it leaps over the obstacles in its path, while the stillness of the glassy pool is, to the experienced eye, a sure sign of the cor-ruption and decay which lurks within its depths. The man who always votes the straight ticket-Democratic or Republican; local as well as general-because his father and grandfather have done so before him; who is fond of boasting that he would vote for a yellow dog of his own party rather than for the best man of the other side, may consider himself a good Democrat or a good Republican, but he is an unwise citizen, for it is by means of such men, as much as through the purchasable vote, that unfit and corrupt offi-

The large amount of scratching of ocal tickets which was done on Tuesday proved something further than this. It showed that our citizens have come to the conclusion that national political issues have nothing to do with local elections. When a merchant hires a bookkeeper, he does not particularly care whether he is a Republican, a Democrat, a Prohibitionist, or even a Nationalist. What he desires to be assured of is that the man is capable and honest. As to giving the preference to a dishonest or incapable man of his own party, as against a good man of another political faith, what would be thought of the business man who should commit such an act begin to feel anxious. Yet, how frequently do we see citizens supporting men for the management of important county or city departments, whom they would never think of entrusting with the combination of their safes. Small wonder, under such circumstances, that official scandals have become so frequent as to be scarcely any longer exceptions. Why should the business affairs of a county or a city-the management of its jail and criminals, the secording of its deeds, the auditing of its accounts-be regarded in a light so altogether different from that in which a careful merchant views the affairs of his business? Why should we offer a premium to incompe-more has a county auditor, or coroner, or a city assessor, to do with maintenance of the status quo in Bulgaria? Not only this, but the drawing of strict party lines in city and county elections heavily handicaps the heads of the tick-t, in whose election national politics is involved, for when a voter sees on his ticket the names of men whom he knows to be unfit, the conse quence often is that he sacrifices the whole ticket and votes the opposition

The line of demarkation between offices which do and do not involve party questions should be clearly drawn. For congressmen and for the State Legislature there should, of course, be party tickets, and when made up of good men, we believe in voters supporting them with vigor and deter mination, like good fighters; but for the local offices a citizen has a perfect right to vote as he pleases, for the men whom he deems the most fitting, whatever ticket they may be on It is not only his right, but his duty to do this, and it may be taken for granted that he will do it henceforth cratic Governor and has a Democratic -at least in this intelligent community -in ever-increasing numbers. Another local election will shortly be held-a municipal one. The scratcher will again be abroad in the land with a sharp pencil, and those who, in framing tiekets, fail to take him into account, will find their best-laid plans woefully defeated. THE TIMES declares itself in favor, henceforth, of emancipation from the thralldom of strict party ties in purely local contests, and no better time to inaugurate the era of emancipation in Los Angeles can be found than the coming month. The people are ripe for revolt.

The Times yesterday sgain disgusted its respectable readers with one of those coarse, brutal and indecent cartoons, for which it has become notorious, representing Col. Markham with a foot upon a failen foe while he cuts off the head of another. The course of the Times was generally condemned. Friends of Col. Markham may rest assured that he is in no degree responsible for this coarse and brutal outrage, which he deplores as much as anyone, but is unfortunately poweriess to prevent it. How much longer will good Republicans continue to support a sheet which is continually bringing disgrace and shame on the party? What encouragement is there for a particularly pure Republican journal to maintain its particularly pure standard of pure Republicanism, when an indecent and disloyal sheet like this gets away with all the patronage, while we go hungry?

OUR despised, loathsome and disgruntled contrumperies may boast tha they had larger crowds in front of their offices on election night, but "it is enerally conceeded" that the gathering in front of THE TIMES castle was far more select and better behaved than those on Second or Spring streets. As a prominent eastern politician remarked, the difference between our crowd and their's was that which distinguishes the congregation of an Episcopal church from the audience of a variety theater.

On Tuesday morning the San Fran cisco Examiner said:

Cisco Examiner said:

No further comment on this able prediction is needed than the statement that Mr. Sanderson was duly lected Mayor. The "Monarch of the Dailies" is not so successful a prophet as it is a lottery agency. Possibly the boycott is also over-estimated.

THE comparative smallness of Markham's majority in the city is easily unto El Monte, but in the character of their election returns they were as dis tant from one another as Jupiter is from the earth. Pasadena represents the Southern California of today, El Monte that of twenty years ago. THE beautiful flower show in yester day's TIMES was much admired. Even the Democrats gazed with pleasure upon these fragrant, idyllic floral emblems, as a relief from the hard, unsympathetic figures which were printed under them.

THE EASTERN ELECTIONS.

As is usual in an "off year," the party not in power has won some advantages throughout the country. It is the rule for an Administration to lose its second Congress. There are always certain jealousies and sorenesses cousequent upon a general election, and the nextfollowing election in the States offers a safety valve for the escape of the gas whice has thus been generated, leaving the parties concerned cool and comfortable for the next Presidential election. It is a sort of family squabble, but woe betide the daring outsider who attempts to interfere. When the time comes to elect another President, the little differences in the Republican ranks will all have been forgotton in the eagerness to get at the common

These well recognized causes have led to the return of a Democratic majority in the next Congress, which is estimated at as much as fifty.

Massachusetts has elected a Demo majority in the Legislature. In Ohio, McKinley has been defeated by a narrow majority, after a gallant In New York, the Democrats have Iu Pensylvania the Democrats have elected Pattison for Governor by about 5000 majority, and have gained two Congressmen. In Kansas, where the Farmers' Alliance played a prominent part, the Legislature is apparently in control of the Democrats and the Alliance. In Illinois, the Legislature is claimed by the Republicans. California shines out as a bright par-icular star among the States of the Union in its election of a solid Republican delegation to Congress.

IN STATE AND COUNTY.

The counting of the ballots proceeds very slowly in San Francisco. The latest returns confirm Markham's majority there, but leave the extent of t in doubt.

A count of about half the precincts n the State gives Markham over 10,000 plurality already.

The Republicans have carried very Congress district in the State, also the entire State ticket. In San Francisco the Republicans have carried the entire municipal and county tickets, with the possible excep-ion of Sheriff. This is a heavy blow at Boss Buckley, whose lambs will go hungry for a couple of years. In Los Angeles county the Repub icans have carried every name on the ticket except Walter S. Moore for the Legislature and Martin Aguirre for sheriff. Our readers will find full election re turns in other columns.

THE defeat of McKinley in Ohio is conceded by a few votes. McKinley made a gallant fight against overwhelming odds, the Democrats having gerrymandered his district beyond all recognition. The trave and talented author of the new tariff bill is surely destined to play a prominent part in national politics.

PASADENA, which was not marked upon the map ten years ago, has this vear furnished the State a Governor and the county a Treasurer and Dis trict Attorney. The Crown of the Valley is apparently ambitious to become the Obio of Southern California, in a political sense.

By Telegraph to The Times. NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—To an Associated Press reporter on the results of yesterday's election, Ex-President Cleveland said:

State Senators. The contest is very close all round and may take the official vote to decide.

ELSEWHERE.

IN NEVADA.

Two of the four district judgeships are still in doubt.

IN DELAWARE.

The next Legislature will stand: Senate—Democrats, 5; Republicans, — House—Democrats, 5; Republicans, — There is no United States Senator to be elected.

Our party has made an honest and earnest fight. It has planted itself upon disinterested and unselfish devotion to the interest of the people. Its absolute unity on tariff reform shows its recognitions of true-bemocratic principles and its enthusiasm in the cause which involves the popular welfare. gathered has been nobly earned.

In answer to an inquiry as to his views on the operation of the ballot reform law, Mr. Cleveland said:

1 link there should be no more opposition to the principle of ballot reform. The evidence of its usefulness and benefit to the people I regard as conclusive. Every honest man should congratulate himself that we have a law which protects our voters from cerruption and intimidation, and it is one of those measures of relief which, once adooted, will not be surrendered.

IN MISSOURI.

New York, Nov. 5.—The Post, in its last edition, says:

The number of Congressional districts in doubt are two in California, several in Iowa, two in Kentucky, and two in New York. It seems safe to say, however, that the Democratic majority in the House will not be 40 coratic majority. It looks as if it will reach 100."

ESTIMATES ON THE HOUSE. CHICAGO, Nov. 6 .- A table made up by the Associated Press from figures 47..... and estimates received up to 1 o'clock Thursday morning show that the next House of Representatives will stand 225 Democrats, 101 Republicans and 5 Farmers' Alliance. The Territorial delegates are not included in the table. It is not thought that the official figures will make much change in these totals.

Stupid Election Officers. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5 .- The count of returns in this city is proceeding very slowly. In 62 precincts the election officers sealed the bulletins in the same envelopes with the ballots, and under the law they cannot be opened until next week, when the Election Commissioners meet. Counters find great difficulty in following the provi-sions of the law in counting the ballots and are consequently much delayed.

THE CITY VOTE.

RETURNS FROM ALL THE PRE. CINCTS COMPLETE.

The Entire Republican Ticket Safe With the Exception of Aguirre and Moore, Who Are Defeated.

Everybody was busy yesterday discussing the election returns, and the County Clerk's office, where the returns were received, was the busiest place in the city. Later returns do not 43. materially alter the situation, as out-44. lined in THE TIMES yesterday morning, beyond confirming the defeat of 47. Aguirre for Sheriff and Moore for the Assembly. The remainder of ticket is safe by good majorities. Almost every one has a theory as to the causes which led to the defeat of the St. Louis, Nov. 5.—Returns from the Eighth, Ninth and Tenth Congress districts in this city indicate the elec-fact that the voter with the pencil was too numerous, and they were scratched and traded off to an and they unprecedented extent, resulting in their defeat.

There are sixty branches of the order in Philadelphia, of which twenty-four are sisterhood branches, with a membership of nearly 8,000. A majority of the branches are doing good work. The total increase is about up to the average for summer months. The Philadelphia sick claims have been greatly diminished the past two months, showing a marked improvement in the general health of the order. During the months of April, May and June there were 185 claims for sickness paid, amounting to $10,550; also 114 final claims amounting to $33,400, making a total down amounting to $93,400, making a total down to July 1 of over $100,000.

It usually consists of parrot soup, roasted or stewed monkeys, alligator eggs (also well liked by Europeans) and birds of every description. They also have moambo, or palm chops, and fish. A great delicacy, so considered by Europeans and natives alike, is elephant's feet and trunk. These have somewhat the taste of yeal. To prepare somewhat the taste of veal. To prepare them the natives dig a hole about five

All carcasses of animals which are to be cooked are placed on a block of wood and pounded until every bone is broken, care being taken not to tear or bruise the skin. They are then boiled or roasted on an open wood fire or in hot sand or ashes, without removing the hide or feathers. The cooking is of a very inferior grade, the only spices used being salt and nepper. the only spices used being salt and pepper.
The kitchen utensils consist of common earthen or woodenware. Very little time is taken for setting or decorating the table: knives, forks and napkins are dispensed with.

Africans have several vegetables well liked by Europeans. N'gutti-n'sengo is a dish eaten all over Africa. It consists of egg plant, small fish somewhat like our sardines and the roots of the cassava or manioca plant (called n'gutti), which have a knotty appearance and often weigh as much as twenty pounds.

As the latter contains poison the manioca is soaked in water for three to tions, and a more statement of its usefulness. Unlike most other fraternal societies, it provides for its members during life, as well as providing for the beneficiaries of deceased members. Gaming for a Man's Life.

Before the war a man was on trial in Lauderdale county for murder. The circumstantial evidence against the man was very strong, and when the jury retired and took a ballot the result was six for conviction and six for acquittal. It remained this way for two days and nights, neither side showing any disposition to change their minds. At last one tion to change their minds. At last one of the jury, named Silvertooth, proposed a game of seven up between the opposing sides, one man to be selected from each side, and whoever won the losing side was to stand by the result.

This was agreed to, and Silvertooth, who was in favor of acquitting the prisoner, and another juror, who was strongly in favor of conviction, commenced the game. It was a notify contested game, and each juror had scored six points when it came Silvertooth's time to deal. He shuffled the cards carefully and dealt off the right number to each and then turned a jack, which made him with the game and which saved the prisoner's life. The six who were for conviction life. The six who were for conviction voted with the other six for acquittal and the prisoner was discharged from custody.—Atlanta Constitution.

"The world is even as we take it."

And life, dear child, is what we make it."

This was the sentiment of an old lady to her grandchild Mabel. And many a Mabel has found it to be true, and she has taken care of her health. She keeps on hand a supply of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and so is not troubled with those wasting diseases, weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations and functional irregularities that so many women endure. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be retunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully curried out for many years.

"Favorite Prescription" is a legitimate medicine, not a becauge. Contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange discontion. Nov. 1, 1890.

Two months ago my wife took medicine of Dr. Wong for bronchitis and asthma, now she is in the best of health and is enjoying life. For fifteen years she suffered and during that time I employed five different physicians and paid them hundreds of dollars, but none of them ever benefitted her in the least. All the doctors advised medicine to move to another climate as the only thing that would ever afford her relief.

romances of real life the part often played by women is a tragic one. Perhaps it is because as the song has it, She did not make the least objection when the idol of her heart proposed, or set her feet toward the downward way. Or perhaps the man was not at fault at all. At any rate, here are the records of some mysterious cases in each of which the chief ufferer has been a woman.

One day in the latter part of September. Richard L. Mabrey, of Doniphan, Mo., reg-istered at Hurst's hotel in St. Louis. He was engaged to Miss Effic Morgan, of Rolla, Mo., and his visit to the city by the big bridge was for the purpose of securing a fashionably made dress suit in which to be married.

The wedding was to have taken place on a Wednesday. The night before Mabrey received a box containing his suit, entered the elevator and went to his room. When the elevator and went to his room. When he closed the door to his apartment he passed from view of all who knew him. No one saw him leave the hotel, but the next day he was missing. He didn't appear at Rolla, he didn't reach home and no trace of his whereabouts could be obtained. Large rewards were offered, and the police ing in the town" and "run away with a woman." They figured the last idea down to what they considered a solution, and boldly gave out the name of the female with whom Mabrey had eloped. They said she occupied the room next the missing man's at the hotel, that she left at the same time he did, and that she lived in a southern Illinois town. Illinois town.

Illinois town.

A vigorous protest followed.

The Illinois girl wrote a fiery letter from her home, scorching the people who had trifled with her good name and denying any knowledge of Mabrey. Then the detectives tapped their think tanks again. Indeed, they are still tapping, for at last advices they hadn't found the Doniphan man; and the maiden at Rolla remains disconsolate.

Another missing bridegroom is Frank Manteuffel, who was to have led to the altar Miss Annie Wilson, of Alameda, Cal. He vanished as completely as a fog before the rising sun. He had a good reputation, plenty of money and fine prospects, so his personal friends and the friends of the girl who was to have been his wife hardly know what th make of the affair

The doubt in which those interested re main is well expressed by a younger sister of Miss Wilson. "Frank Manteuffel," said she, "always spoke very hard of people who acted scandalously in any way and were brought before the public through papers. It was not so very long ago the called our attention to a case not unlike this one, and explained with an emphasis that struck me at the time as abso lutely flerce, 'That fellow ought to be killed fortreating that young girl so.' And now he has gone and done the very same thing. Well, I can hardly think he has run away. Something, sure, has happened to him, and it will all be cleared up soone

MRS. FITLLER-BENSON A greater tragedy than that of abandon-ment or loss of a lover is displayed in the case of pretty Katie Hart, a 19-year-old soubrette who had gained some fame on the stage. One afternoon not long ago she visited without demur a minor hotel in New York city, accompanied by the prize fighter Jack McAuliffe. The couple went

She agreed to steal it while Benson took the old woman out for a walk. The man the old woman out for a walk. The man returned alone, got the money and disap-peared. A few days later Mrs. Mettman's frightfully mutilated corpse was found in an obscure gully on the military reserva-tion. Inquiry followed of course. The Routzahn woman told what she knew, Benson was arrested at Camden, N. J., and is now a prisoner at Leavenworth, held to answer for the awful crime of murder.

A strange tragedy of domestic life was brought to light not long ago during a will contest at Mount Holly, N. J. The estate in question was that of Hezekiah B. Smith, a millionaire manufacturer and exmember of congress. Smith lived for years in Vermont, but on removing to New Jersey espoused Agnes Gilkerson, to whom he left a large property. After his death Mrs. Evaline V. Smith, of Woodstock, Vt., appeared and claimed the estate on behalf of herself and children. Counsel took a sensational method to establish the fact that Mr. Smith had recognized the eldest daughter, now Mrs. Ella A. Fuller, as his child. They produced the police court records of Philadelphia for December, 1877, to show that in that month December, 1877, to show that in that month Ella was arrested for pocket picking, and that the deceased had presumably declared her to be his daughter, and, at any rate,

A few years later Mrs. Spen-cer died, and her husband lost his fortune. Then in 1878 he took as a second wife a Mrs

This, however, did not deter him from wedding a Mrs. Peard in 1883. Inside of a year No. 3 got a divorce, and in 1888 Spen-cer remarried No. 2, who has been recognized by an insurance company with which he had a policy as his lawful widow. In compliance with his request Spencer's body and Stranger Following - American Seers Who Have in the Past Foretold

The cleansing of the world would seem to be a task too gigantic for the human mind to undertake or to imagine. Nevertheless there has rarely been an epoch in the history of our poor old mother wanting its prophet, its thaumaturger, to predict either her utter destruction or her absolute recognition. In Funce this renovation. In Europe this is not so often the case today, but the new continent has been prolific with their abnormal births. Joseph Smith, Andrew Jackson Davis, William Miller, Frederic Olcott, Mrs. Miner, Jemima Wilkinson, are a few of Miner, Jemima Wilkinson, are a few of the names of men and women who have assumed the prophet's role, uttered their predictions while gathering in followers and money—the latter always seeming to be necessary in these cleansing operations—and made themselves notable figures in the history of fanaticism.

The methods of these people and others— who have not attained an equal celebrity— less by their own fault than by the stollidi-ty of the unbelievers—are not very dissim—less by their own fault than by the stolidity of the unbelievers—are not very dissimilar. In fact the office of prophet seems to be one which destroys all originality in its inception. Yet each one of the American prophets has had a trademark to be recognized as his own peculiar method of destruction. For instance, the last to go about the country and get his name into the newspapers is a farmer of German ancestry, born in Ohio, but owning a little farm near Elkhart, Ind. The name of this broad faced, rotund prophet is this broad faced, rotund prophet is John D. Kauffman. He is said to resentile somewhat in person, and exceed-ingly in fluency and rapidity of speech, the late President Garfield. About ten years have elapsed since Brother Kauff-man saw wealth and renown in the denunman saw weath and renown in the denun-ciation of the earth far surpassing what could be gained by accepting it for what it is and tilling his forty acres of it. He was sitting on his own porch when suddenly—or at most with a few premonitory twitchings—his consciousness fied, and he began to deliver himself of a strange gibberish which alarmed the good, wholesome wife by his side. Nart he fell on his knees, and began preaching and praying in an inspired fashion. If this was a sort of trial performance it must have been satisfactory to him, for his wife was alarmed almost to hysterics, and try as she might she could neither calm him nor herself. Out of the trance state he is modest, retiring and hesitating in speech. Twice or thrice a week, or even oftener, the trances fall upon him, but, like all originals, he has his caprices, and audiences who have come many miles over the country roads are sometimes obliged to return without hearing the Word. William Miller, founder of the sect of Adventists, is, however, the most noted as well as one of the earliest of the prophets. America has produced. He is also the most interesting personality. His works atill survive and his character is still held in esteem. Born in Pittsfield, Mass., in February, 1783, he came of good Revolutionary lineage, as his strong features denote. In the war of 1819 he was a recruiting officer and a captain at Plattsburg. Although he was religiously educated, in later life, after having gained a competency on his Green Mountain farm, he retrograded into unheliaf, and the works of study of the Bible.

At this he persevered without assistance for many years, and at length in 1831 he rose from the perusal of its pages sincerely imbued with the belief that he had the correct interpretation of the parables, and under the solemn conviction that to him had been given the key to unlock the prophetical numeers. He set out at once to proclaim to a doomed world that in twelve years the end of all things would come, that some time between March 21, 1843, and March 21, 1844, Jesus Christ would appear in person to judge the world. Wherever he went multitudes flocked to hear him, and many were persuaded by his lectures and the charts, he need to illustrate them, whereon were depicted in terrifying form whereon were depicted in terrifying form the beasts of the apocalypse. The time finally set for the total destruction was the great day of the atonement, or Oct. 24-25, 1844.

People are living today to relate the tremendous excitement of that period, which was the final culmination of fanaticism, and to dwell on the serious and ludicrous sides of the affair. Multitudes were sincerely converted, hundreds were baptized by immersion, while, on the other hand, foolish people dressed themselves in ascension robes and refused to eat, while others, packing up their valuables and jewels in large trunks, connected the same to their persons by long straps, thinking if they were seized and carried up to heaven these articles would of necessity secompany them. The excitement endured through out that October and even the following month, and then the collapse came and the Millerite church was shaken by schism. Out of it grew the Shakers, Mrs. Miner's "Palestine," the "Feet Washers" and other sects. But William Miller, uncrowned as he was, still had followers to the number of 50,000, and in April, 1845, a convention of them regularly organized on and the name "Adventists" adopted by the sect. on and the name "Adventists" adopted by Andrew Jackson Davis, born in Orange county, N. Y., Aug. 11, 1836, is the prophet of America who most resembles in his methods the sage Emanuel Swedenborg. An apology is due the Swedish nobleman for drawing this comparison between him and a vague rhapsedist like Davis; nevertheless, there is much alike between them. theless discoursed fluently and gracefully while in a trance upon medical, psychological and historical subjects.

His first trance, which lasted sixteen hours, fell on March, 1844, and he then learned all he ever knew, and from the highest authority, as he claimed—spiritual beings who had been himous teachers on earth, and who had not, in their sublimated is at least there was a royal road to learning. In 1845, while clairvoyant, he dictated a book of 700 pages to Rev. William Fishbough in New York. A later book is "The Approaching Crisis," which contains startling assertions concerning things in heaven and earth, and sets down the end of the world to occur on July 4, 1890—a choice which shows that Mr. Davis was patriotic as well as willing to take the assistance of small boys, freerackers, etc., to assist him in raining down fire and brimstone.

and his cousin, Mr. Stulzman, he started on a little tour of the neighborhood preaching and predicting the end of the world near the year 2000.

In his methods Kauffman preserves a certain order. When the faithful assemble they find him stretched out on a lounge in the room of the meeting, and while they are singing and praying he maintains a rigid attitude. Then his arm moves upward and halts—immovable as a statue's. This is the signal, and two of the elders assist him to the floor, and he begins his rambling discourse. He talks in two languages, German and English, speaking longest in the tongue which is understood by the majority of his hearers.

Recently he journeyed as far east as Pennsylvania, and he had a successful tour through the rolling Lancaster county, fifty miles west of Philadelphia, among the Amish Mennonites. Many wonderful things are related by eye witnesses among these simple people; how the prophet with when Jemima declared against all mar-riage and giving in marriage.

She dressed in male attire and created great astonishment and awe among the Indians by her eloquence and some simple feats of legerdemain she performed by aid of the steel and magnet. The colony flourished, and she lived respected and beloved until the year 1820, when, to the surprise of her followers, she died in earnest, and the sect she founded was heard of no more

The song of the resurrected world is not by any means a new one. The old poet-prophets all the world over have sung it, and Mme. Blavatsky is only renewing the strain of Buddha when she finally announces a fifth corollary in the modern movement toward Theosophy. In her creed the world will simply exhale in vapor—waft off like a smoke ring from a cigarette. All the prophets, all the religious teachers, have looked to the same end anxteachers, into doked to the same can data iously and hopefully. An old trick is being played anew by a rascally flat hunter in New York city His plan is to select a vacant apartment in some flat house and enthuse over it. When he hears from the janitor the name of the owner he immediately claims acquaintments with the constant of the content of the conten his wife, and the next day turns up with check for an amount about $10 or $15 in excess of the first month's rent. He desires the janitor to cash this check, which is worthless, and hand him the change Of course the man never turns up after this

Lost to Sight. Gen. Sheridan was not a tall man, though he had a commanding presence. While he was an under officer he was one day drilling a company, and was annoyed by the unsoldierly appearance of a tall, round shouldered Irish recruit. "Don't stand in that way," Sheridan finally exclaimed. "You look like a Chinaman doubled over a washtub.

Straighten up—form erect, chest out and chin elevated. Like this!" chin elevated. Like this!"

Then the officer gave the man a superb example of the perfect soldier in parade movement, his eyes fixed unalterably away from earthly things.

Surface Traffic in Big Cities.

Trustworthy figures, recently com-piled, show the mileage of street car track in the United States and Canada to be nearly 9,000. Horse railways occupy 5,902, electric railways 1,753, dummy lines 556 and cable lines 441. The number of electric roads now in opera-tion is 264 against 44 cable roads. Some he statistics of the surface railways for the year ending September, 1889, show that the whole population of the state was carried nearly sixty times. If to the surface lines were added the elevated roads, the number of trips per individual would be over eighty.-New

More people attended the Chrysan themum Fair in Wooster Hall yesterday than on either of the two preceed ing days. At noon an excellent luncheon was enjoyed by a large numtime that it was impossible to accommodate all.

The floral display has lost none of its attractiveness. The flowers are examined with particular interest by the many Eastern visitors who have attended the fair. Persons are on hand to impart all that is worth knowing as to varieties, etc. Mrs. Judge Hester was chairman of

Mrs. Hammond Finds a New Home Waiting for Her. Mrs. Hammond, who went East last spring, returned home on Tuesday after a delightful trip, but the pleasantest part of it all was the surprise that awaited her upon her arrival at her home on Marengo Place.

When she left on her trip the house was stripped bare; carpets, rugs and bric-a-brac were packed away, and so Mrs. Hammond expected to find them on her return. Lately, however, Prof. Hammond had the house handsomely repainted and papered and newly-fitted up and the furniture and ornaments all put in place.

Tuesday afternoon the professor went to Los Angeles to meet his wife. During his absence the friends and neighbors took possession, and when Canada Thistles.

[L. M. B in Practical Farm.]

In your issue of Oct. 11 C. S. Clark inquires if any one can tell how to destroy Canada thistles, When I was in New York State I bought a house and lot. In front of the house on one side of the street the ground was matted. of the street the ground was matted with Canada thistles. I exterminated them all in one season. That was some years ago and not a thistle has come years ago and not a thistle has come up since, or at least had not when I moved to New Jersey some two years ago. I think they are very easy to destroy. When in blossom, or just as the blossom opens, take a boe and cut them close to the ground when the sign is in the heart, and you will kill them every time.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The stock market today was reactionary in its nature. The bears soon got to work in Sugar this morning, selling was heavy and attended by con-siderable excitement, the stock dropping 4 per cent, to 57 in the first half hour. Feeble rallies took place in stock from time to time during the day, but late in the day its prices touched 56%, a loss of 6% per cent., while at the close it reached 55. In railroads a sudden pronounced weakness was developed in Vanderbilts, and the list could not withstand such influence. Final changes are with few exceptions material losses. New York Central is down 24, Lake Shore 2, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific each 1%, and others fractional amounts. Government bonds were steady.

tinued-Come Early to Avoid the Rush-The Goods Are Fast Disappearing.

PEOPLE'S STORE Thursday, Nov. 6.
The chestnut to which the "smooth creat ure" alluded to in his harangue of yesterday has been truly exemplified by the manner in which he howled. He speaks about hav ing sent us an explanation on Saturday after our advertisement of that day ap peared) for a typographical error in his rot of Friday—so he did. In order to bear out that assertion, he publishes a letter purporting to be a copy of it, but the way in which he has contorted that letter and made it fit the socalled situation is really wonderful. His ability in writing touching and sympathetic poetry is only equalled by his penchant for twisting and turning words and letters around tomisguide public opinion. We wonder why he didn't publish the letter word for word as he wrote it? It couldn't have hurt his pride (?) or his manhood, (?) but would have stamped him more of a man to those who have seen the original. Still when we referred to the "creature, who apologizes in private," we had not yet received, nor seen the letter which he sent us (not the one he is a said the same quanty as our set as a kyou $2.50 for.

We referred to the cowering explanations given to others whose presence face to face with him called forth what little substitute for manhood he We wrote that little pea warmer before he was awake or received the letter containing another of his apologies. We might have modified it a little had his apology come sooner, but "Saturday is our busy day," and we have met his kind before He is very much like the "quack surgeon who makes a wrong cut and then does all in his power to heal it, saying it was not his fault, as some of his "lik" had told him and he had read it in a book somewhere that it was the way to do it; just let him apply a little salve and it would be all right

Such "salve" is almost as dangerous a the cut itself, and we want none of it. It is the slick, smooth, oily actions of such "creatures" that slowly, yet surely under mine the stability of everything they connect themselves with. We cannot help regretting the whole affair, as the results will have to be borne by the widow and children whose honored name we revere, while the it all upon them will laugh in his sleeve and gather in the "percentage on the sales." Like the proverbial rat he will desert the ship when it gives the first evidence of sinking, not forgetting, though, as he slinks away, that it was his constant nibbling that caused it all.

For our further vindication and for the public who possibly might misjudge our standing in the business world by the "creature's" few closing remarks, we will state that the firm of A. Hamburger & Sons, proprietors of the People's Store, buy strictly for "Cash," sell strictly for "Cash," have never fulled in business (and never Intend to,) have always met every obligation long before maturity and will pay $1000 for every dollar of money due and unpaid by us that the "despicable creature" or anybody else can confront us with. It is that record and the strict observance of its principles, coupled with R ght Goods at Proper Prices, that placed us where we are today and in the position to sell drugs, as well as all other goods bandled by us, as we do today and always will for the lowest figures.

Catarrh is often regarded by the patient as a cold in the head, and he often expresses his a ton shment at his remarkable tendency to centract fresh celd. Indeed, he declares that he is searcely free from one cold before he takes another, and he is always exceedingly careful; it is also a matter of surpriss to him that the cold always seems to settle in the head and throat.

At times man of the symptoms of catarrh seem to abute, and the patient is led to hope that the disease is about to wear off; but an other class of the symptoms of catarrh seem to abute, and the patient is led to hope that the disease it is somewhat changed in its other class of the symptoms of catarrh and the control of t
